1999 Sports

Football

The Rebels ended the 30 year streak of winning seasons with a 5-6 record this year. The 1998 Rebel football team began the season with a promising outlook. Coming out of a grueling preseason, with the addition of seniors Jim Walsh and Mark Stampfl, the Rebels knew that the Bay State League was going to be very competitive. The offensive line, led by seniors Matt Glynn, Bobby Collins, and Paul Hurley, helped senior running back Kato Francis, who battled a season long ankle injury, run for nearly 1,000 yards. The Rebel passing attack suffered due to a quarterback controversy between senior Steve "Pitta" Patterson and sophomore Mike Hartnett and the loss of senior wide receivers Kevin Ludwig and Ben White. Even though some of the scores don't reflect it, the defense was the strongest element of the football squad. The defensive line, led by Paul Hurley, Ramon Robinson, Justin Nottingham, and defensive ends, Rob Taglienti and Mike Burt, stopped the opponent's running attack time after time. This forced the opposing teams to go to their passing game, which Mark Galonzka and Kato Francis fought toughly against. The Rebels concluded the season with an outstanding victory over their newly established rival Weymouth, 7-0, in an extremely intense game.

Field Hockey

The Walpole Porkers once again had a successful year. They took home not only the Division 1 South Sectional trophy, but also the MA State Championship title. With dedication and hard work combined with skill and speed, the Porkers were able to end the regular season with a 17-1 record. The senior Porkers include: Lindsey MacAleese, Karen Ring, Caroline Casey, Carolyn Greener, Cait Steele, Katie Creeden, and co-captains Carolyn Bolster and Cory Pelletier. Everyone worked extremely hard to make the season a successful one. Coaches Calf and Quinn dedicated much of their time to make the Porkers the best in the state. The Porkers had an unstoppable offense and a tough defense. Of their 24 games, the Porkers posted 20 shutouts including six straight in the state tournament. The only low point in the season was when the Porkers' six year regular season winning streak came to an end in Weston. This was the only game of the season in which the Porkers didn't score. Anyone who has seen the Porkers play will agree that determination and hard work makes the Porkers SIMPLY THE BEST.

Girls Soccer

The Girls Soccer Team started its season off to a slow start, winning only four of its first 15 games. Although the offensive line did not tally up many goals, the strong defense, which included juniors Liz Sanfilippo and Meghan Shea; senior Michelle Trainor, and senior Captain, Sarah Thorley, kept the team in every game with their greatest loss by only two goals. The offensive line up was led by senior Captains Kate Stumpo and Kelly Collins. One of the more competitive games this season was against the number two team in the state, Newton North; and another, against an equally powerful opponent, Wellesley. The first was only lost by one goal, while the latter ended in a tie. Coach Bill Tompkins said "Although our record does not show we are a strong team, we have been contenders in every game this season. I am very pleased with the kids' effort, attitude, and determination." Overall, the team ended its season with five wins, eight losses and five ties.

Boys Soccer

After losing a strong 12 member senior class, the boys varsity soccer team had a large task ahead of them. With only six seniors to lead this year, the team faced the challenge of inexperience. Everyone on the team knew they had to rise to the occasion. There were certainly times of struggle, such as three tough losses which came during the last five minutes of games. However, throughout the season, good things were evident due to strong team unity. Positions were filled, people were given their chances, and there were times of success spread throughout the season. They finished the season with an disappointing record of 4-8-4.

Girls Cross Country

This year's girls cross country team finished up the season with a record of 5-6. Though not outstanding, this record was quite an improvement from last year's record of 2-9. Senior Captains; Lee Kelley, Erin McAleese, and Jayne Desmond lead the team in its valiant efforts. A big contributer to the improvement over last year's record was junior Lindsay Baker. Baker came out of the woodwork, proving to be an excellent runner, leading the team in all the meets. The backbone of the team was what coach Lauren Culliton refered to as the "core". The core consisted of seniors Lee Kelley, Missy Carrie, Erin McAleese, Jayne Desmond, and Monica Capobianco, who would take places 2-6 for Walpole, boxing out the competition. Senior Michelle Hunt improved her time greatly and was an excellent addition to the team. Two other big contributers were junior Jenn Chopchitz, and freshman Monica Yerxa, who will be a force to reckon with in the years to come.

Boys Cross Country

As they worked through a rebuilding year, the boys cross country team had a tough season. With only one returning varsity runner, they knew hard work was the only way to complete the season. The captains were Jeff Conradi and Brian Morris, supported by top runners, Tim Moylan, a junior, and Ben Hagberg, a sophomore. Last year, seniors filled almost all seven varsity positions. Tim and Ben had to work hard to lead the team and to overcome last year's privation. Though the running Rebels had only one victory halfway through the season against Natick, the boys stayed in good spirits. Their standing in the Bay State League was received knowing they did the best they could.

Volleyball

The Girls Volleyball Team set many goals for itself this year. One in particular was to qualify for the Bay State Conference playoffs. En route, they posted an 11-5 record, which included defeating Herget foe Norwood. The teams success was derived from their unity, hardwork, and senior leadership. The seniors consisted of Kristen MacDonald, Christine McIntosh, and captains Betsy Cobb and Marisa Palumbo. Three Bay State Conference All-Stars were also produced. They were: Kristen McDonald, Kristen LaRoche, and second year All-Star Marisa Palumbo. First year coach Heidi Bruschi provided the program with her enthusiasm, knowledge, and love of the game. Despite a first round loss in tournament play, the Rebel volleyball team had a successful season.

Swimming

The Walpole High School Girls Swim Team finished off their season with four wins and eight losses. Normally, this would not be considered a great record. However, the team, consisting of only eighteen swimmers, competed against teams twice or three times their size. The fact that they were able to hold their own and win four meets was a great accomplishment. Captains Lauren Perry, Beth Hennessey, and Caitlin Shea-Kenney set many high goals for the team and encouraged the Rebel swimmers to give their all. This was evident as numerous swimmers qualified for the Sectional Swim Meet. Additionally, Caitlin Shea-Kenney, Cindy Harrington and Jessica Doyle qualified for the State Meet. Overall, the Rebel swimmers showed great improvement.

Cheerleading

The 1998 Rebel Cheerleaders led by senior captian Jaycilyn Gillis and junior captians Lauren Young and Elaine Mannix, started practicing early last spring. They were determined to make an impressive showing at U.C.A. camp in July. Battling heat and humidity, this talented team placed first for routines and won a bid to Florida. The only senior team member was Jaycilyn Gillis, who gave up a chance for All-Stars and sent fellow team member Jill Ellis in her place. Both Ellis and Mannix won a trip to London over Christmas break. All season long, the team perfected their dances and cheers. This resulted in numerous accolades. The team placed fourth in Shepard Hill, sixth in Bay State, and first in their division. With only one graduating senior, the Lady Rebels will return next year with a strong and seasoned team.

Dance Team

Starting its first year in the 1998 season, the Walpole High School Dance Team, was a success. The team managed to pull off a fun, successful season entertaining the crowd at football games, through all of the stress of getting the new team started. Captains Kara Dolan and April Keville were able to keep the team spirited and excited throughout the season, with the incredible help of the coaches Michele and Alison Saulnier. Their performance at the fall Pep Rally showed a strong, able team that will become stronger as the team grows in the upcoming seasons. Although the Dance Team did not compete this year because of its new status, they will be competing next year with the hopes of winning a competition. Many were nervous at first, but they all went out and had fun, which lead to the success of the team. They hope that many more people will join their exciting team next season! GO REBELS!

Golf

This year, the golf team has had a strong season compared to those of past years. The team finished up the regular season at 8-7, just breaking 500. The record did not reflect the team's improvement, according to team captain Matt Baldassari. Two of the losses were by only one stroke. Seniors Mike Ranalli and Jason Brown had a productive year, helping the team secure a spot in this year's state tournament. Baldassari said, "One of the reasons for the team's success was TK's(Tom Kelly) smooth swing." Other big contributers were Sonny Powers, Matt Farris, Stephen Scott, and Todd Anzlovar. Baldassari ended up finishing third in this year's All-Star Bay State Tournament. He was only one stroke behind the leaders. Baldassari said that the team will be looking for new players next year, since seven seniors are graduating. Anyone with some experience should think about coming out for the team.

Hockey

The Walpole Boys Hockey Team had a frustrating year to say the least, but the outlook for next year's team is a good one with many starters returning. Sonny Powers was the captain of the team and Matt Glynn was the assistant captain. There were four representatives from the squad who earned spots on either the first or second All-Star teams of the Bay State League. Junior forward Nik Monahan was the lone member on the first team, while junior goalie Joe Lamoureux, junior forward Matt Cimeno, and Senior defenseman Sonny Powers all made the second team. Overall, the 1998-1999 season was considered successful. The Rebels fielded a fiercely competitive team despite a lack of varsity experience.

Wrestling

The Walpole High School Wrestling Team was able to finish their season with a total record of nine wins, eight losses, and one tie. The team's league record was six wins four losses, and a tie. Besides the team's competition during the season, members of the wrestling team competed individually in the Division II South Sectionals. Eleven out of the thirteen varsity wrestlers placed in the top eight of their weight class. Co-captains Paul Hurley and Pat Schofield led the team, qualifying for the Division II state tournament. They both did well with Hurley placing second and Schofield placing fourth. Also qualifying for the Division II tournament were Zach Kline, Kevin Greener, Justin Nottingham, and James Spencer. Both Nottingham and Hurley stood out from the rest by losing only one match each to receive third place and qualify for the MIAA All-States Tournament which allows the best sixteen wrestlers in Massachusetts to compete. Although they tried hard, neither was able to advance further. With only three seniors leaving next year, the team should have a strong base to work on next year to allow an even more successful season.

Boys Basketball

The Walpole Boys Basketball Team had a season that will be remembered by most. The reason being was due to the lone victory over Dedham in front of a loud and anxious crowd. Normally, a team would not be proud of a sole victory, but considering that this was the teams first win in two seasons, it was as if a great curse had been lifted. The 83 point scoring night was a season high for the team. Senior All-Everything Stephen Scott scorched the net for a game high 32 points. Twenty seven of those came in the second half. This years Rebel team was made up of a group that carried the title as the team that never gave up. Although most of the players would have liked a few more victories to show off their hard work, there is always next year. This years seniors provided quality minutes, scoring, and rebounding. Each of which will be tough to replace. In addition, accolades were awarded to numerous players. Steve Scott was unanimously selected first team Bay-State and was the Daily Transcript Co-Player of the Year. Sophomore Kurt Vranich was a Daily Transcript All-Star and Peter Campopiano was an Honorable Mention for the Transcript. Coach Collins summed up the year by the saying "it was surprising that with all the hard work, we were victorious only once on the scoreboard".

Girls Basketball

Led by senior captains Lee Kelley, Cory Pelletier, and Kate Stumpo, the Lady Rebels finished the season with an overall record of 18-4. With only two returning starters (Cory Pelletier and Kate Stumpo), the young team began its season marred with injuries. Kate Stumpo had a nagging ankle injury requiring surgery to be repaired. However, despite the combination of inexperience and injuries, the team was able to come together and win the Bay State League Championship. The team jelled nicely with the help of seniors Carolyn Bolster and Sarah Paglucia, who became key players with their hard work and dedication. The team was a strong post season contender, but suffered a heartbreaking 54-40 loss to Fontbonne Academy in the quarter finals of the State Tournament. Kudos to Kate Stumpo for being selected as Bay State League MVP and Second Team Academic All State. Further both Lee Kelley and Kate Stumpo were selected as first team Bay State League All-Stars. Coach Steve Waisgerber ended the season with this statement, "A varsity team is only as good as its seniors. This team is a testament to that."

Boys Winter Track

The Walpole High School Boys Winter Track Team showed much improvement over the course of the season. The athletes had many outstanding achievements throughout the season. They put up a good fight in every meet. Some great performances were made by Tim Moylan and Ben Hagberg in the 1 and 2 mile events. In short distance, Hanna Haidar and Mike Cambria were a force to be reckoned with, earning an average of eight points per meet. The overall team record may not show the hard work every member of the team put in, but the improvement in personal times is a good indicator. Behind all the personal achievements are first year coaches John Barry and Jim Poore. The new coaches did an excellent job with the guys, working them hard every day and pushing them to do their best.

The Lady Rebels Track Team endured a 1-7 record for the winter season. They were led by first year coaches Jim Poore and John Barry. The Rebels suffered tough defeats during the year including losses against the conference leader Wellesley, rival Norwood, Newton North, and Dedham. The girls were able to pick up a victory against Weymouth during the middle of the season. Junior Emily Logan led the team by running both the 1000 meter and the mile. Senior tri-captains Lauren Gannon, Michelle Trainor, and Erin McDonough provided leadership throughout the season.

Gymnastics

Captains, senior Lindsey Vetrino and junior Meghan Lutz, brought the Girls Gymnastic Team through a successful season compared to its last year record. With only one loss to Weymouth in its last meet, the team has showed its effort and willingness to win. Coach Dayna Curran in her second year of coaching Girls Gymnastic has led the girls through an amazing season that brought them all the way to the sectional finals. The team made an impressive showing and won sixth place in the competition, but were unable to advance further as the competion only allowed the top four to go on. Two members of the team, freshman Kristen Ridge, and sophomore Jessica Doyle, showed high individual achievement. Ridge had the opportunity to compete in the Division 2 State tournament as did Doyle. Both Ridge and Doyle gave enthusiastic, well-rounded performances, but neither girls was able to place in the top four. The Girls Gymnastic Team finished second in its conference, losing only to Weymouth. The team has showed that hard work can make a substantial difference.

Softball

The Walpole High School Softball team had a respectable year with a record of 12-11. Nothing came easy for this young team. After losing many seniors last year and having four key injuries before the season started, the softball girls knew they would have a difficult year ahead of them. Senior co-captain Marisa Black said, "We don't have much experience, but what is lacked in experience, is made up for with zeal." This zeal helped the team earn a tournament spot. However, they were eliminated by Middleboro in the first round. Coach Bob Murphy summed up the season best, "We're a young team with a great deal of enthusiasm; it's a pleasure to watch this group of girls work together day in and day out with one purpose, to make themselves better ballplayers. As a team they can take great pride in their accomplishments. They've come a long way in such a short time." The Rebels have convinced many that they are not a team to be taken lightly. The Rebels future performance will prove beyond a reasonable doubt their ability to work as a team in a league of their own.

Baseball

The Walpole High School Baseball Team clinched the Herget Division title and made it to the first round of the tournament but were defeated and unable to advance futher. The Rebels ended their season with a record of 17-3. This was a great accomplishment considering Coach Tompkins stated early on "This is the toughest schedule of my 21 year career". The Rebels started off their season with five wins in a row, defeating their opponents soundly with constant and consistent offense and some great pitching by their starters Kevin Ludwig, Chris Dugdale, Greg Coughlan, Mark Stampfl, and Joe Lamoureux. Besides the team's exemplory pitching, their batting and offense were also top notch. Mike Burt and Rich Decembrele provided key hits and drove in runs in order to aid their team in the successful season.

Boys Lacrosse

This year the Walpole Boys Lacrosse Team ended the season with a record of 2-14. The team steadily improved and continued to build on its accomplishments. New Coach Mr. Paul Murphy gave the team a new focus and raised the level of intensity. Dedication and organization were at an all time high, adding to the team's success. Another distinction was the closeness of many games. Although the end result may not have been a victory, the goal differential was far less than those of years past. Regardless of the final score, the players hustled and continued to hit hard until the last whistle blew. On the offensive front, senior co-captain Gary Puglia, sophomore Matt Rinella, and junior Joe Brady led the way, generating most of the team's scoring, as well as adding vocal support to their teammates. In the midfield, Dan McQuillan was the backbone, consistently winning face-off after face-off. Junior Ed Fraser and sophomore Brian Ludwig became key contributors to the squad. Next year looks to be promising since many players are returning.

Girls Lacrosse

The 1999 Walpole High Girls Lacrosse Team significantly improved their team record from last year. The team players showed a great committment to the sport as well as a committment to the team as a whole. The team senior captains Monica Capobianco, Caroline Casey, and Lindsey MacAleese served as excellent examples of skill, dedication, and leadership. Most spectators believe the reason for this years dramatic improvement has been attributed mostly to its new found team unity and an impressive increase in passing. The team scored greater goals than in previous years. This increase was a direct result of cooperative plays rather than just breakaways or lucky shots. Although the Girls Lacrosse program is a relatively young squad, the team has been a great success with regards to overall effort.

Girls Spring Track

The Walpole High School Track Team finished the season with a disappointing 1-7 record. However, the team put exceptional effort into all of their meets, going nose-to-nose with some of the top teams in the state. The team featured many strong competitors. Senior Erin McDonough and junior Caitlin Shea-Kenney were strong runners in the two mile race, consistently placing in the top three and also competing in the mile when necessary. Junior Emily Logan, sophomore Terryn Giampietro, and freshmen Jen McDavitt and Monica Yerxa were also notable in their runnings of the mile and 800 meter races. This depth in the long distance events proved WHS a formidable foe. Another individual who experienced a great year for the track team was senior Lee Kelley, accounting for over 100 points this year. Competing in the 200 and 400 meter, high jump, javelin, and the 4X400 relay, Lee always gave her all and never let her team down. Also, Sarah Pagluica made great improvement in the 300 hurdles. With earnest effort from individual members of the team, and only a handful of seniors leaving, a glimmer of hope resides for next year. Next year, Walpole looks to be a formidable opponent.

Boys Spring Track

The Walpole High School Boys Track Team did not score well this year. It was victorious in just one meet; however, this did not stop the team from keeping hope in a situation where many athletes would have stopped trying. Through its season full of losses, the team remained unified and fought the good fight even though victory eluded the team all but once. Certain individuals displayed their true potential as athletes. Seniors, Brian Morris, Jeff Conradi, John Thayer, Joe Wall, and John Moore, provided leadership and were able to lead the team despite the lack of its success. Morris, Conradi, and Moore each earned respect in the distance events. Morris also performed well in the hurdles, with the assistance of Wall, one of the team's strong shotputters. Many juniors also helped out the team by earning points this year. The juniors who did well in distance, led by Tim Moylan, were Matt Burns, Kevin Tucker, and John O'Leary. Each of these runners were able to drop considerable amounts of time off his own personal best. Next year's squad is looking good with a promising group of juniors and sophomores ready to lead the team to a more successful season.

Girls Tennis

This year the Walpole Girls Tennis Team was very impressive in a competitive league. Once again the team has achieved the same success that has become so common in recent years. Under the leadership of Coach Joanne Sprague, the team qualified for the post-season tournament with a strong 11-5 record overall. However, the team was quickly eliminated during the first round of competition on May 29, 1999. The team's other losses came against the elite teams of the conference: Brookline, Newton North, Framingham, and Milton. Regarding the wins, perhaps this season's most impressive victory was against Wellesley, last year's Herget Division Champions. Much of this season's success can be attributed to the strong senior leadership of Kristen McCone, Carolyn Greener, Sarah Thorley, and Cait Steele. The team will definitely have its work cut out for it next year after losing four strong varsity members.

Boys Tennis

This year the Walpole Boys Tennis Team had a respectable season filled with a mix of impressive wins and unfortunate losses. The team ended its season with an overall record of 7-9. Jason Peckham was successful in first singles and was the top player on the team. Despite a noble effort all around, The Boys Tennis Team failed to qualify for the tournament. However, the team is anticipating a successful season next spring with each of the varsity players returning. Coach Steve Ouellette said, "Despite the loss of last year's starters, this team came close to a tournament spot. It was a disappointment, but the team is in good shape for next year when we will have a stronger starting position. It was a solid rebuilding year with great kids who made it a fun season."

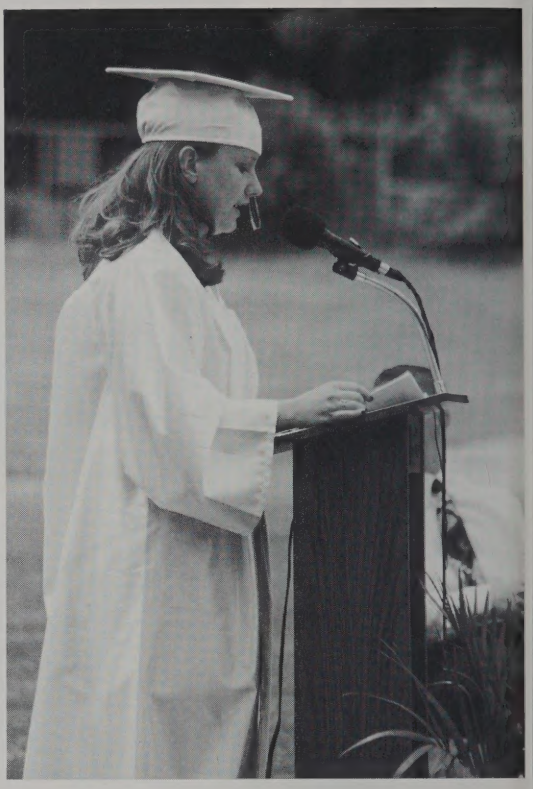
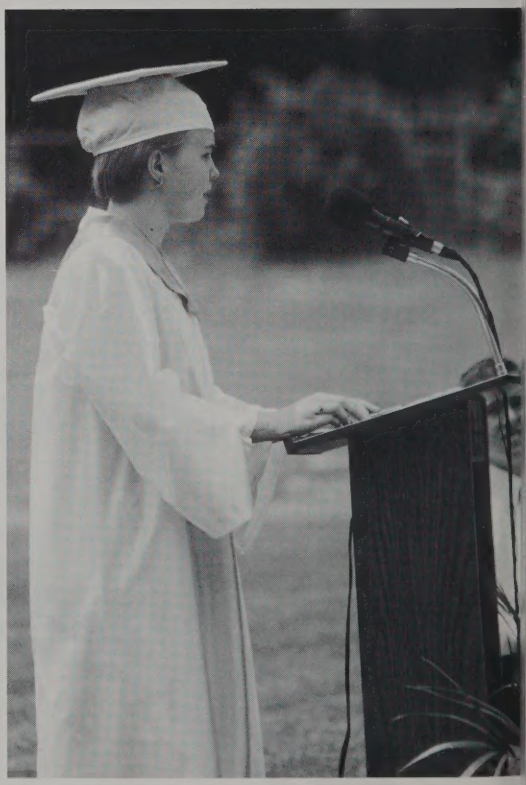
Speech of Class President Kristen McCone

Superintendent Livingston, Dr. Sambuceti, esteemed faculty, family and friends. I present to you today, a representation of a new generation. A generation formed of future believers, creators and role models. A generation who has the ability and the means to change this world if they so desire. Ladies and gentlemen, I present to you the class of 1999. Four years ago we came to Walpole High School as timid, scattered adolescents who only worried about weekend plans and difficult homework assignments. We leave here today as adults, and more importantly, great friends. We have grown together over the years and some may say that we will eventually grow apart. But I invite each one of you to take a look around you. These are the people that know you best, and have accepted you for what you are. They have seen you at your finest, and your very worst. They have been the shoulders you have cried on and the ears you have confided in. We have shared laughs, victories, defeats, loves and loses. These are some of the people that you have shared some of the happiest moments with, and memories this strong can never fade. It is time to go our separate ways, but the bond we have made together, can not be broken. No matter what. Our class motto states: "What lies behind us and what lies before us are tiny matters to what lies within us." For the past 18 years or so, our experiences, both good and bad have already made us into the people that we are. Nothing can change that, including graduation and leaving the town and community that we have grown up in all our lives. We will grow and mature, and our philosophies will alter, but our inner selves are what will hold us together throughout these new experiences. No matter what roads you choose or where you end up, never lose touch of who you really are, for that would be to truly fail. Today we are stepping out into the world, as equals. It is those of you who will push yourselves, and live each day to the fullest, who will achieve greatness. Each one of you can go on to be whatever you want, go wherever you choose and believe what you want to believe. It is your responsibility to execute these options everyday of your lives. Some of you will go on to be become great doctors, lawyers, musicians or athletes. Other will be the best teachers, journalists, mothers and fathers this world has ever seen. No matter what profession you decide, each one of you must realize that you play an instrumental role in the direction of your community, our nation, and even this world as a whole. Many people have lost faith in the world today, and especially in our generation. It is time for us, as adults, to meet our own responsibilities and realize that our voices can be heard if we shout them loud enough. It is no longer acceptable to sit back and watch the world in despair. The time has come for all of us to stand up against the atrocities we are being faced with, and comprehend that each one of us has the ability to do something about them. Never be fearful to stand up for your beliefs, be fearful that if you don't, the world just might pass you by. For those of you who have passion in what you do and what you believe in, I hope that spark in you only gets stronger as years go on. Each one of you has contributed to the spirit and energy of this class and because of that, the Class of 99 is like no other. As a class we have shown this community that we don't have to fit a mold to succeed. We don't want to go through life quietly, or by the book. We are striving, not just to be a member of society but of a living example of our own hopes and dreams. I wish you all the best of luck. My advice to you is to live each day to the fullest, and make no room for regrets in your life. But most importantly, remain true to yourself, and everything else will fall into place. My fellow graduates, the world has been awaiting us and today marks our arrival. Thank you.



Speech of Valedictorian Erica Johnson

Good afternoon Dr. Sambuceti, Ms. Brainard, Mr. Cantrell, Administrators, Faculty, Clergy, Family, and especially my fellow classmates. May 25th was our last day of learning at Walpole High School, but the adventures we have experienced and the lessons we have learned will forever be with us. As we attempt to close this chapter of our lives, we look back at what we have accomplished with great pride. Throughout our lives, we have each chosen our individual paths. Inspired and influenced by our parents , families, friends and teachers, each one of us has learned, matured and grown during our formative years in high school. In spite of our different choices, together we form the Class of 99. And now, as we part from our friends and venture out on our own, we will always remember that we are a part of the Class of 1999. A child, not more than 8 years old, once said, "Reach for the moon. If you miss it, you will land on a star." This "anything is possible" notion is instilled in children even at such young ages. But where does this idea originate? Are we born believing that the world is ours, that life is whatever we make it? My answer for you is no. This idea must be repeatedly driven into a child's head so he may believe it and succeed. During the past 17 or 18 years, our parents and teachers have repeated to us that life is full of infinite possibilities and that hard work will garner success. To many, success is measured only by the amount of wealth accumulated; to others, success is achieved only with happiness. I myself believe in the words of Ralph Waldo Emerson, who stated: "To laugh often and much; to win the respect of intelligent people and the affection of children; to earn the appreciation of honest critics and endure the betrayal of false friends; to appreciate beauty, to find the best in others; to leave the world a little better; whether by a healthy child, a garden patch or a redeemed social condition; to know even one life has breathed easier because you have lived. This is the meaning of success." Before sending you off to whatever future lies before you, I wish to remind you of the words of Walt Disney, "If you can dream it, you can do it." It is what lies within you that makes up who you are. If you believe in yourself, in your inner strength and courage, then you can accomplish any goal. The sky is the limit. As awkward and nervous high school freshmen, facing the newfound pressures of essays, quizzes, projects, and tests, the sky was the limit. When the anxieties of SATs and college applications made free time an amusing joke and sleep an improbable fantasy, the sky was the limit. On the sports field, whether it was the football or the field hockey team winning another championship or an individual performing at his or her best, the sky was the limit. As we participated in clubs, sports, and community service, we spread the message that the sky is the limit. Next September having again regressed to being awkward newcomers with numerous essays to write and hundreds of pages to read, remember: Have some coffee, take a cold shower, and remind yourself: the sky is the limit. After graduating from college, when the job offers start rolling in, take the path that will make the difference, remember: the sky is the limit. Fifty years from now, when your grandchildren are sitting at you feet, asking you innocent questions about your life and why you made the decisions you did, flash a toothless smile, pinch their cheeks, and tell them, you can have what you want, be what you want, the sky is the limit. Thank you.



Speech of Salutatorian Shilpa Gupta

Good afternoon, respected clergy, administration, faculty, family, friends, and members of the Class of 1999: We are gathered here today celebrate a milestone which defines the close of the adolescent era of our lives and catapults each of us into a world of young adulthood ripe with opportunity and responsibility. We are all at a crossroad in our journey through life - a point when one chapter of our lives is closing behind us as another is slowly opening in front of us. The most important thing to remember in the midst of reminiscing with nostalgia and anticipating with excitement is to live in the moment with passion. The present has much more of an impact on life than one may assume at first. Take a flip book for example: the first and last pages look completely different; yet if every single page were laid out in consecutive order and someone were asked to distinguish between which two pages the change occurred, he would not be able to do so. To the naked eye, each page would appear to look exactly as the next, yet somehow, the picture will have changed completely over the course of many frames. Similarly, life is composed of these pages - more commonly referred to as the days which form our lives. We start out as young children and somehow become mature adults ready to influence our world. But when does this change occur? The question at hand, rather, should be how does this change occur? It is one of many experiences gradually accumulating over time to create an older, more mature individual. This continuous building process makes it clear that while a particular day may not appear be significant, it has a more magnified effect than one may have thought. As you stroll through each day of your lives, it is important to be aware that daily decisions, conversations, and actions have a very significant effect on your life. The key is to live each day with energy and imagination, maximizing every situation to make the best of everyday. This will allow you to add an essential page to your flip book of life. These subtle changes in life build upon one another to eventually produce a visible change. Even seemingly unimportant days add a page to your flip book which once put into motion, reveals the growth and direction which your life will take. The subtleties of everyday living are what define you. It is vital to recognize the importance which these actions hold. Be wary of the fact that little things may have an underlying effect once the book is flipped. This warrants a sense of consciousness about what a great influence you may have by your actions and words. If anything was to be learned from the Columbine tragedy, it is that acceptance is key in everyday life, and that subtle prejudices and discriminations may one day build upon one another, producing terrible repercussions. I can not stress enough how important it is to be aware of the influence that your actions may have on others. Far too many of us believe that we have no effect on the world, yet each of us holds a great responsibility to care for the lives of one another. Sensitivity and consideration in everyday responses to others can make a world of difference to individuals who feel insecure, disconnected and isolated. The power of acceptance and comfort should not be over looked. Overall, the thought with which I leave you to consider is the importance and effect each day has on everyone's life, including your own. Too many people spend an enormous amount of time planning for the 'tomorrow', but in doing so, forget to live today. I would say, "Carpe Diem", but that is to much of a cliché; instead my feelings are best related by the advice that Jedi Qui-gon gives to his young apprentice Obi-Wan Kenobi, "Be mindful of the future, but not at the expense of the present." Thank you and good luck class of 1999 - make your next frame a beautiful and meaningful one.
